Pennsylvania Elk: Reclaiming the Alleghenies

An 85-minute video highlighting the Pennsylvania elk herd.

See and hear from many of those directly involved how this species has rebounded to levels that were unimaginable just 20 years ago.

Pennsylvania Whitetails: Living with Change

Two years in the making and shot from suburban Philadelphia to deep within the Allegheny National Forest, this 75-minute video captures the wondrous world of our most popular game animal.

On the Trail of Pennsylvania's Black Bear

Based on the most comprehensive black bear research conducted in North America, this 100-minute video documents the black bear's life through the year and includes many aspects never before captured on video.

These special edition collectables can be ordered at <http://www.theoutdoorshop.state.pa.us>. The free video offer is available while present stock lasts and will end when all of the 2007 edition collectables are sold.
